Time: 12.00 for 12.30 pm

Venue: The Abbey Suite, Mytton Fold Hotel, Whalley Road, Langho, Blackburn, BB6 8AB

Join us for a delicious lunch before listening to Nick Oldham, a local author who is known for his best-selling crime novels. Nick was born in the tiny village of Belthorn, up on the moors high above Blackburn. He became a policeman at the age of 19 and served in many operational postings around the Lancashire County before retiring in 2005. Majority of Nick's novels are set in and around a Lancashire seaside resort that have been highly regarded featuring DCI Henry Christie. Unforgiving is the twenty third novel in the series of crime novels featuring Henry Christie. We look forward to Nick happily sharing his memories and tales as our literary lunch speaker.
