

LFWI: TOURS AND EXCURSIONS SUB-COMMITTEE

MARKS AND SPENCER COMPANY ARCHIVE

Date: Thursday 30th November 2017

Time: Leaving Leyland only at 8.45 am

Cost - £15.00

The Marks in Time Exhibition celebrates the role that Marks & Spencer has played in people’s lives for over 130 years. Featuring unique artefacts, historic garments, documents, films and photographs, the exhibition tells the M&S story from market stall to Penny Bazaar to international retailer. We will enjoy a guided tour of the Marks in Time exhibition, expert talk with an M&S archivist and free tea and coffee. Please note the archive is fully wheelchair accessible. Access is level throughout with an accessible WC.

There will be free time for lunch and pre-Christmas shopping in Leeds city centre prior to the tour which starts at 2.30

The coach home will leave at 5.00 Please note that because numbers are limited for this visit we regret that it is restricted to WI members only.
